ART SALONS

Relaxed and stimulating opportunities to share ideas and fine food at Rat's restaurant with GFS artists and your fellow patrons of the arts. Seating is limited. Sign up for all three by August 31 and receive a 10% discount! Please call (609) 586-0616 to register.

HEATHER DEWEY-HAGBORG: TOTEM

Thursday, Sept. 12 – 3PM

Today we lunch with artist Heather Dewey-Hagborg, an emerging NY-based artist whose multi-media sculpture Totem is included in the Spring/Summer 2011 exhibition, Plugged In. Ranging in topics from algorithms to animal architecture, her work questions fundamental assumptions about human nature, technology and the environment. $55 Members; $60 Non-Members. Price includes lunch and one glass of wine (must be 21+ for wine).

HANS VAN DE BOVENKAMP: MENHIRS

Thurs., Oct. 20, 6 – 9PM

Dine tonight with master artist Hans Van de Bovenkamp, whose large, inviting sculptures Sagg Portal and Cock-a-doodle-doo are icons of the park. Both works are part of his Menhirs series, which convey a sense of sacredness and spirituality reminiscent of prehistoric architectural structures. $85 Members; $90 Non-Members. Price includes dinner and one glass of wine (must be 21+ for wine).

CAROLE A. FEUERMAN: EMPLOYEE SHOWER

Wed., Nov 9, 12 – 3PM

Come lunch with celebrated artist Carole A. Feuerman. Motivated by questions about the nature of reality, Feuerman's sculpture combines flawless super-realist technique with a humanist approach. Two sculptures by the artist, Employee Shower and Zeus and Hera II, are in the park. $55 Members; $60 non-Members. Price includes lunch and one glass of wine (must be 21+ for wine).
